

Mathéo LIN-TENG-SHEE

Curious, meticulous and serious student

Student at ENSEEIHT. I am curious, pushing myself to know and understand everything around me. This allows me to quickly acquire the necessary skills and to adapt very quickly to a position. This curiosity also allows me to keep up to date in the areas of digital required although they are changing rapidly nowadays. In addition, sports have brought me great work rigor as well as a will to surpass myself, pushing me to always look back on the work done to try to improve myself.

Experiences

NXO OI
Intern
Saint-Denis, La Réunion

L3 internship in a managed services (IT outsourcing) company in the medical sector.

I worked in a demanding environment where data security and the proper functioning of systems were critical. This experience allowed me to develop strong attention to detail, adaptability when facing unexpected situations, and a solid sense of teamwork.
